GIN & TONIC STORY

- Monkey 47 75
Monkey 47 Dry Gin is distilled in-house in the Schwarzwald (Black Forest) region of Germany. The '47' in the name comes from both the 47 botanicals used and the 47% ABV. Served with Fentimans Tonic with lime and lemon peels
- Tanqueray 10 45
Affectionately referred to as "Tiny Ten". This small still was used as an experimental/trial run still at the distillery before becoming the key still for Tanqueray 10. Served with Fentimans Tonic and grapefruit wedge.
- Tobermory Gin 45
It features local botanicals including elderflower, tea and wild heather, and a dash of Tobermory new-make spirit, which is used more as another botanical rather than the full base. Served with Fentimans Tonic and lavender.
- Mistral Gin 50
Thanks to the founders of the first Provençal Gin Rosé which was crafted based on the knowledge of the terroirs of Provence and their know-how in rosé wines, we can now enjoy this recipe with a color so unique.
Served with Fentimans Tonic and cardamom
- Gin Mare 45
Gin Mare opens the door to a new variety of gins, with a novel Pan-Mediterranean concept that unites the different cultures around this sea representing their botanical stars such as: Arbequina olives, thyme, basil and rosemary.
Served with Fentimans Tonic and lemon wedge
- Four Pillars Spiced Negroni Gin 50
Four Pillars Spiced Negroni Gin is the original gin created specifically to go in a Negroni cocktail. It is a highly aromatic, rich and (yes) spicy gin with great power and intensity. Served with Fentimans Tonic and grapefruit
- Sip Smith London Dry Gin 60
Sipsmith is one of the few London Dry Gins that are actually made in London. It has been produced in the Hammersmith district of London since 2009.
Served with Fentimans tonic and orange peel
- The Botanist 65
An artisanal Islay gin made by Bruichladdich Distillery. It is one of two gins made on Islay, and is distinctive for its 22 hand-foraged Islay botanicals that are added to nine core gin aromatics. Served with Fentimans Tonic and lemon peel
- Bulldog Gin 60
It is difficult to trace where the name itself came from, there have been claims that because the year it was released, 2006, was the Chinese Year of the Dog. The website reads that it was a reference to Winston Churchill. Who knows?
Served with Fentimans Tonic, star anise and lemon wedge
- Plymouth Gin 60
For almost 200 years, Her Majesty's Naval Fleet and Plymouth Navy Strength were inseparable, with no ship leaving port without a bottle on board. Plymouth Gin is a Protected Geographical Indication that pertains to any gin distilled in Plymouth, England. Served with Fentimans Tonic and cardamom
- Tanqueray 60
The palate begins with juniper, but finishes with rich hints of baking spice including angelica root, cinnamon and coriander seed. Served with Fentimans Tonic and lime wedge

WORLDLY CLASSICS

A legacy cocktail with an air of refined panache, it should be stirred, never shaken, to retain its clarity and composure. After all, it is suave and debonair, crisp and dry.

This iconic appetitive is the very definition of balance and simplicity. It's sweet yet bitter and most certainly timeless, and still served today the way Mr. Negroni intended.

Emanating from the 19th century, it formed the basis from which all other cocktails were born. This classic drink is confident and mastered here the old fashioned way.
